Ye Olde Fanzine Shop

Ordering Information: We only have a limted supply of all these various fanzines, so if you see something you want, don't wait too long to order it. However, an asterisk (*) after a particular issue means we only have a few copies left, and when ordering any of those, list alternate choices if possible. Obviously, we do not have room to list the contents of each one, however, suffice it to say, we will only stock what we consider good fanzines. This does not mean that any we do not stock isn't good, because we cannot, of course, stock them all. If you have a fanzine you would be interested in selling in quantity, drop us a copy along with the lowest price you can sell 50 copies to us for. Send all orders (and sample fanzines) to: Ye Olde Fanzine Shop, 9875 SW 212 St., Miami, Fla. 33157. Make checks and money orders payable to THE SPCA. FRAZETTA in FANTASTIC EXPLOITS

Starting with issue No. 15, FANTASTIC EXPLOITS (formerly titled FIGHTING HERO COMICS) will feature Frankm Frazetta's famous "White Indian" strips. These will be run in serialized form (1 part in one issue with the 2nd, and concluding, part in the following issue). To insure the best and clearest possible reproduction, the negatives are shot (half tone) directly from the comic, not from a photo copy. Here is the chance of a lifetime for all Frazetta fans to read and collect (via FANTASTIC EXPLOITS) the great White Indian strips at a fraction of what the original comics would cost you. We have around 10 complete stories that we hope to run if F.E. gains fandom's support. It should be noted, however, that each issue will have a verry limited printed run, so you should not delay in ordering. The issues that are currently available are listed below. Send all orders to THE SFCA, 9875 S.W. 212 St., Miami, Fla. 33157

FIGHTING HERO COMICS #14 = 75¢. The Lion, by Bill Jo White. The first 2 episodes of Buck Rogers, plus art by John Fantucchio, Joe Rabon, and Jim Miller.

There are some great EC fanzines around (we published one ourselves) but now you can see and read some EC classics instead of only reading about them. Again, ONLY $1.00 (Add 25¢ for first class mailing.) All half-toned, with wrap around binding. AUTHORIZED EDITION.

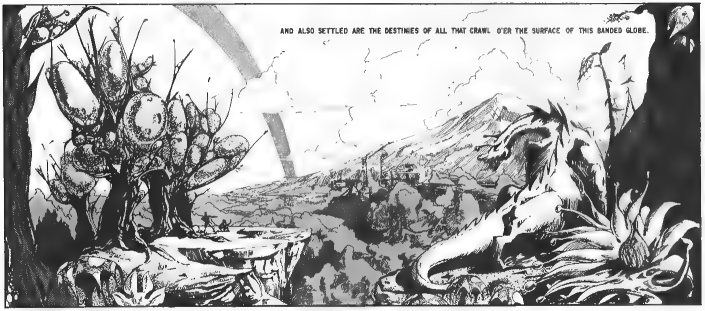
MAXOR OF CIROD

by JOHN ADKINS RICHARDSON



FANTASTIC EXPLOITS No. 21 presents what may be the ultimate sword and sorcery strip.....MAXOR !! It would be ludicrous to try and describe this 23 page epic by John A. Richardson. You say no one artist, be it Wrightson, Steranko, Frazetta, etc., could draw such a strip? Richardson has. This is it. This is what we have been waiting for. No far off future publication date. No teasing, No waiting for it for months and months wondering if it ever will be published. M A X O R is here! 28 pages in all, including a four color front and back cover. SUPERMAN FORESEES SUPERCONS

BY KIRK ALYN

One of the RBCC's roving reporters encountered Kirk Alyn, Superman of the Serial Films, last fortnight. They were both sitting around the Greater Los Angeles Press Club listening to the fabulous Bill Kennedy spin some of his tall yarns which have made his Mr. L.A. column famous. When Bill took off, our man moved around to talk to Kirk - having met him at Conventions in Houston, New York, San Diego and Los Angeles. Their comments naturally turned to those events. Here-with are some notes reproduced from a reporter's very retentive mind:

Reporter: I heard you speak at four of the big gatherings, Kirk. You really held those audiences in the palm of your hand. How do you do it?

Kirk: I don't know that I'd say that, but I like people and enjoy entertaining them. Also, I enjoyed making the serials these people are interested in - so I guess we just have a lot in common.

Reporter: Funny thing. I've been attending these get-togethers for years and this is the first time you've been around. How come?

Kirk: Simple. Didn't know they were going on. Didn't read about them in the papers, and I guess until some stories came out in NEWSWEEK and a couple of fan magazines, the "Con" directors probably thought I'd disappeared in the general direction of Krypton - if they took time out to wonder.

Reporter: Well, it's certainly not that way now.

Kirk: That it isn't - in a lot of ways. For one thing the news is finally getting around that there are such things as fan clubs and magazines devoted to nostalgia. I've run across dozens of people who never heard of the "Cons". It's going to be different from now on out, I think.

Reporter: What makes you think so?

Kirk: Well, for one thing, the wave of nostalgia that is hitting the country is tre-mendous - old records, revivals of old plays, even Medieval festivals! Then I think there's a growing awareness of what a little pre-convention ballyhoo can do. Just think how the attendance would have risen if notice of the appearance of Ray Bradbury and Forrie Ackerman had been in the papers and on TV well ahead of time! To announce a "Con" only in the Fanzines and to people on the Club mailing list brings out the inner circle, but to have bigger and bigger attractions and to make the Convention successful from a financial standpoint, it seems to me that there is a great potential audience among those who are filled with nostalgia but don't know anyone to share it with.

Reporter: Have you seen any evidence that such publicity really would bring in some new fans? I know most of the fanzines could use a few more subscribers.

Kirk: Yes, I guess that's always true. One good example of pre-con publicity paying off was when Earl Blair arranged newspaper, radio and TV appearances before the Houston Con. Everyone, including your Rocket's Blast said it was a terrific affair. And I could tell from my mail that many who came would never have been there if they had relied on getting news through club channels. I foresee some really big conventions ahead, with funds enough to arrange better and better programs. Let the people know about it and they'll be there.

Reporter: How are you coming with the book you wrote, "A JOB FOR SUPERMAN"?

Kirk: I thought you'd never ask! Sure, we do have some books left - with a four color cover made up of my six serial posters - (plug) and they are available by mail for $4.50. Send to Kirk Alyn, P.O.Box 1362, Hollywood, Cal. 90028

SOCK HUDSON AND HIS PAL, BACON BOB PREPARE FOR THE NIGHT ..
LOOKS QUIET AND PEACEFUL AROUND HERE .. WAIT A MINUTE! THAT SCREAM SOUNDED LIKE IT CAME... FROM A HUMAN BEING!
THE TWO MEN DASH TOWARD THE DIRECTION OF THE SCREAM... THEN SUDDENLY STOP, STRICKEN WITH HORROR!

BLOCK'S HAND STREAKS FOR HIS GUN. HE FIRES, AND THE SURPRISED CAT WHEELS AND BOLTS SILENTLY INTO THE UNDERGROWTH..
HOW COME YER'RE WAY OUT HERE PLAYING TAG WITH THAT BIG 'UN ? THEM CATS IS MIGHTY DANGER-OUS!
NEVER MIND ME... GET TO MY RANCH...QUICK... THAT-KILLER BELONGS TO A HALF-CRAZY HOMBRE NAME O' BLACKIE...HE MAY BE HEADIN' FOR MY SHACK NOW. .
REST EASY, MR. RAYMOND... I'LL HOP DOWN TO YOUR PLACE AND TELL YOUR DAUGHTER YOU'RE O.K.
MEANWHILE, A VISITOR ARRIVES AT THE RAYMOND RANCH...
I AM THE BEARER OF UN-FORTUNATE NEWS MISS RAYMOND... YOUR FATHER WAS ATTACKED AND KILLED BY A BIG CAT! MY DEEPEST SYMPATHY!
YOU'D BETTER GET OUT OF HERE, BLACKIE, BEFORE FATHER GETS BACK!

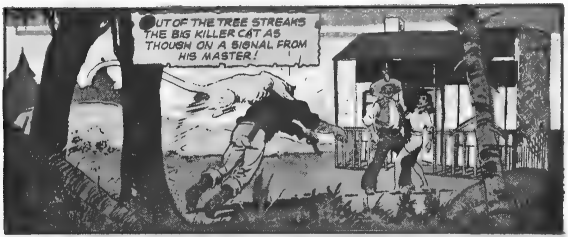
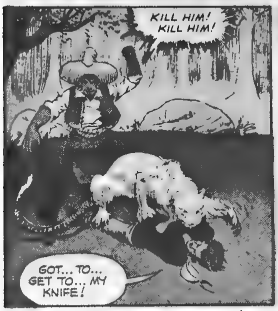
BUT BEFORE HE DIED IN MY ARMS... I PROM-ISED TO LOOK AFTER HIS DAUGHTER!
I DON'T NEED NO INTRODUCTION TO YOU, BLACKIE!
YOUR ADVAN-TAGE IS A TEM-PORARY ONE.



OUT OF THE TREE STREAKS THE BIG KILLER CAT AS THOUGH ON A SIGNAL FROM HIS MASTER!



KILL HIM! KILL HIM!
GOT... TO... GET TO... MY KNIFE!

LOCK GETS HIS HAND ON HIS KNIFE... PLUNGING HIS OTHER HAND BETWEEN THE OPEN JAWS OF THE KILL-HUNGRY CAT...

YOU... YOU HAVE KILLED MY CAT... FOR THAT YOU, TOO, MUST DIE!

NO, YOU DON'T!
LIKE A PANTHER, RAYMOND'S DAUGHTER LEAPS FROM BEHIND BLACKIE AND GRASPS HIS ARM IN AN AMAZINGLY STRONG GRIP!
NO, YOU DON'T!
SUDDENLY, ROCK THROWS BLACKIE OFF BALANCE, AND BRINGS HIS RIGHT IN A TERRIFIC BLOW STRAIGHT TO THE JAW!
THE TWO MEN FIGHT GRIMLY, EACH GIVING AND GIVING NO QUARTER...
LATER
I GUESS WHEN BLACKIE SICKED THAT CAT O' HIS ON ME, HE THOUGHT FOR CERTAIN I WAS A GONER. DON'T KNOW HOW TO THANK YOU, ROCK!
I DO!

FANDUM ANNUAL

2ND ISSUE

THE LATE, GREAT CAPT. FLAG

by HOWARD KELTNER

We, the staff of the SFCA, are proud to present what we feel is the finest publication ever to come out of the ranks of comic fandom. While it is made up, partly, of material reprinted from various fanzines (SFA FOM #3,4,5, GOSH WOW #1, ALTER EGO #6, THE COLLECTOR #13, and MANY others), this annual would have to be called a book rather than a fanzine. It has regular hard-back binding, with the covers printed on 120 lb. varnished stock. And it contains a total of 156 pages. To list the entire contents in detail would take about 4 pages, so we will just touch on a few of the topics. To start things off we have a panoramic front and back cover in full color by John Richardson (who also supplied several other pieces of brand new art). We have a 9-page pictorial review of the evolution of the RAMPAGE and RAFFLANE by Billo White; the whole 19-page "Savage Earth" strip by Don Newton that ran in RB&C (a collector's item in itself); an interview with Joe Kubert by Ronn Foss; "Foundations in Fantasy" (an EC article by Rich Hauser); a Fantucchio folio featuring some of John's best work; a Frazetta folio featuring, among other things, full page cover reproductions of RUSTEN CRABBE #5 and GHOST RIDER #3; plus much, much more. No matter what you like (Disney, EC, super hero comics; art by Newton, Black, Wrightson, Frazetta, Fantucchio, etc.) you'll find a giant dose in this giant book. For $5.00 it may well be the biggest bargain fandom has ever seen. And remember, the above is only part of the material to be found in this annual; there are many more features of equal excellence that have not been listed. Send $5.00 for each copy you want to THE SFCA, 9875 S.W. 212th Street, Miami, Florida 33157. Add $1.25 if you want it mailed first class.

THE GAME

by Arne Leher

It was a sad, bleak morning; the sky was a steely grey, a perfect day for the game, though Tamquet, bishop of the white peoples. There were a blare of trumpets and a tramendous shout from the white army and the first move was made. With a surge of battledrums, the white quarterman of the queen's rook went forward, he was a good, stolid man; he knew that of the mistaken poems in the sentient, perhaps three would live, for he unofficial his allotted ten minutes and stood there dutifully, awaiting whatever fate had in store for him.

There was a corresponding cheer from the black hosts and the queen's knight stirred. He gave a fearful guiness toward Ulrics; impassively standing on her primary square; tall and dark and wind-like in her sheer garments. Then with a surge of might and a clash of hoofs, the knight on his steed took his place in front of the pawn of Ulrics's bishops. Here was the gardeman of Ulric's knight and Ulric, he was a veteran of many games and his sneer was tarnished and his helmet scarred and dented. His move was one forward so that he could protect his pawn immediately behind.

Again, a ramsome cheer from the dark hosts and Tamquet saw Ulrics's rook stir. His name was Rogar and he stood tall, as befits a rook, in black plate, his face was hid by an open file sight. His eyes were so small and stabby that they resembled the slightest of a smudgepot. They unlidded a little and he moved rickly forward.

Yandro, white king commanded him, again, the trumpets blared and the battledrums resumed and with a thudding heart and pulsating pulse, Tamquet glided behind the pawn of Ulric's castle.

The first challenge of the moment' with a shudder, the black pawn missed forward two rooks. There was a howl from the light people and a se as from the dorks as the knightside guardsman yes his sword through the air, the blade a rage, and came down on the pawn full sight as the black lackeys hurriedly removed him from the field. But then a scream and shiver from the entire as De ryan started. Then, his chainlike greatsword unlimbed down from his great height and the white peam's terror was split in twain almost to the waist.

Yandro scowled and sent Wamba forth, Wamba, Tamquet's own pawn. This was his first sombat and a sneer was brewing over Tamquet's face. The knight stirred restlessly and spat from it as with a wide smile and wholehearted laughter he looked back at Tamquet and Ulric, they shouted forward, lying, shouting and waving their swords overhead while fellows him. She took her stand where she could protect Tamquet from Dorgon's sword. The queen the Longer, king of the dorks would not interfere Dorgon.

Again, the clumsy trumpets smerked and their files roared once more. Kazan, Ulrics's young ranker spit on his hands, put his shield on his arm, drew his broad shorter sword and with his face weighed over a tear, with a shiver of anger and a tremendous clatter, That man has been weighed over a tear, with a shiver of anger and a tremendous clatter, and Kazan leaned forward to his task. Wamba's sword lift his heavy, fierce sword and Kazan leaned forward to his task. Wamba's sword lift his heavy, fierce sword and together the brains of Kazan all over the field but that Dorgon would surge forth and strike his knight, Wamba halted in his great, fierce and grimmed leadership and Ulric's eye his triumph, Wamba halted in his great, fierce and grimmed leadership and Ulric's eye his triumph, Wamba halted in his great, fierce and grimmed leadership and Ulric's eye then leered at the white queen.

Tamquet paused a moment, then moved his bear so that Rahell, queen's rook would shoe t Yandro thought a moment, then moved his queen's pawn. The grinned white warrior cast Ulric a look of fawning part he said with Dorgon's pawn. The grinned white warrior was spared her a look of fawning adoration, then did he was he bid. Ulric's queen's knight was spared her a look of fawning adoration, then did he was he bid. Ulric's queen's knight

A gasp of horror from his white hosts' Yandro sneak Ipia forth; he means to sheetsat the game by sacrificing Ulrics to get at the queen's castle by her own bishop. Tamquet paused, but Ipia, not her purity stained and soiled by that dank dagger, Conger Freeman dangling in her white hand down over the side. Ulric trembling pout with alee as a seraphim, while a mighty oath, Kazan took to the air, he hurled his huge war-axe and the silver-lipped dagger flew from Ulrics's hand and the dagger flew from Ulrics's hand and the dagger flew from Ulrics's hand and the

NO.7 FEBRUARY

Fraudulent Slips

A Commentary by Bruce Hamilton

Maybe fandom should form a group of vigilantes. They could call themselves The Fraud Squad. They'd be kept busy enough. The current crop of cons are plying their wares in passing off phony books, covers, newspaper strips and even original art! When you order something through the mail or buy it in person at a convention, no matter what it is, look closely: it may not be what you think. It may not even be what the SELLER thinks it is.

At least one big city dealer in the east was recently deceived into selling to his customers a brand new book of daily comic strips reprinted from the 1930's. It was passed off to each sucker (and may still be) as a rare syndicate "file" copy, which —indeed!— if true, would have been valuable, as syndicate proof books are of the highest quality on slick paper and represent a complete run of whatever period is covered. The printing job on this book, however, is poor. The blacks run from a passable near jet to a faint tattletale gray. The pages —over 300 of them— are numbered in uninterrupted sequence, with two dailies per page, giving you the impression you're getting a full two year run. But actually, there are numerous missing dates in the continuity. A clumsy attempt to reduce the chance of your noticing these "holes" has been made by scratching out a number of the copyright dates. And this was done by hand after the book was printed! The purpose of mis-representing these books as rare "archive" copies is two-fold. First, since the real ownership would be questionable, the collector is quiet about having the good "fortune" of being given the opportunity to purchase one of these rare jewels at a staggeringly high price. Second, it reduces the printer's chances of being caught on copyright infringement. If you have one of these already, I'm sure you'll recognize the description.

There also was a case I recently encountered of what appeared to be a series of counterfeit newspaper Sunday pages. At a printed "value" of five or six dollars per, the profit margin would be feasible, I suppose, but the ready market is so limited I can hardly see how this is apt to become much of a problem. The printing quality of the ones I saw, though in full color, was terrible.

You may, at this very moment, be the proud possessor of a first edition —comic or hardcover— that is only partly authentic. I have spoken before of a copy of Marvel Mystery #1 that is being offered for sale for more than $400.00 that has a false back cover. It isn't advertised as such, of course. If you're in the market for this one and have the opportunity to inspect it before you buy, check the catalog ad on the back cover. The 1941 date has been inked out because the publication of the comic was in the fall of 1939!

A practice similar to that, but much worse, dates back many years in fandom. Sometimes the only difference between a valuable and rare first edition hardbound book, and a later edition of the same title that is in plentiful supply and worth little, is just one page! That is the copyright page. One dealer's been known to remove that one page from a first edition with, for example, a cover that has been ruined and substitute it for the same page in a later edition. It takes a razor blade, a little glue, and a lot of patience. A good job is difficult to detect.

So far we've dealt mainly with counterfeiting. But forgery invaded at least one major con last summer. It was worked like this: a "fan" attended a con with a batch of original art under his arm to trade for his wants. Among them was, in this case, a nice page by Jack Kirby. He asked each dealer what they'd give him for it. Yes, it was a forgery ... photographically reproduced actual size on heavy stock paper from an original he doubtlessly left at home. To make it look authentic he went over some of the solid blacks with a pen or brush and ink to give the surface the "rough feel" of an original. He may have gotten the idea from certain syndicated cartoonists who send fans "art" of this type. In their case the work is still original, though (sort of). Why anyone would spend the time, money and effort to do this is beyond me. The profit would have to be negligible ... but it may just be the satisfaction in having put something over. On the other hand, the profit would be WELL worth the time spent in duplicating an Alex Raymond "Flash Gordon" or a Herriman "Krazy Kat." Look closely before you buy.

Then there was the Karl Bents ad. Did you see it on page 63 of the last issue of the RRCC? It easily got past the editors because it had every appearance of being legitimate. It had almost TOO many highly desirable comics for sale but it was a "collection" being sold to meet "school expenses." The prices weren't cheap come-on's, either. But did you read the whole list? Whoops! Buck Rogers 4-10 @ $40.00 each? But Karl ... whoever you are and wherever you are ... the early 40's Famous Funnies B. R.'s stopped with number six. Didn't you know that? And all those E. C.'s you advertised at $15.00 to $20.00 apiece that don't exist, either! Ouch! Do YOU really exist? Or is your real name _____, and did you get cold feet before the ad came out and move, and is that why mail sent to you comes back, "Addressee Unknown"? Or ... are you merely the figment of someone's imagination who thought the whole thing was a jolly good joke?

For Gerry Monaghan (#14) from Joe Goggin.
Your coverless BLUE BEETLE is not #2,3, or 4. #2 has 8 BB stories and nothing else. #3 has two 31 page BB stories and nothing else. #4 has 4 BB stories and 2 KO1 stories by Willis B. Bennis (Will Elsner). Mmhmm. In that case the only issue this could be would be #5 as I have data on 6-10 and none of those had LE. Drake etc.

Seth Orlow...Brooklyn, N.Y.
Q. I have two IW comics (Kazanga #8 and Whip Wilson #1). Could you tell me what year they are from and what they are worth?
A. Both came out around 1964 but as reprints of earlier comics. Kazanga is pure 1954 and worth about $7.25 mint and Whip Wilson is around 1950 and worth about $1.50.
Q. I have a coverless SUB-MARINER with the story "Terror in the Lost Colony". What issue is it?
A. This is SUB-MARINER #26 June 1948.
Q. Could you tell me the date, publisher and worth of MISS VICTORY #3?
A. Date is 1945 and it is worth about $2.50 in good condition. I don't know the publisher.
Q. I can answer this one Seth. Your CHAOKAJACK must have pages out because you did not list THE OWL as being in it. Would have to be an issue from #36-42. Wait I just checked and you have the same issue I have and it is #41 Nov. 1941.

John Kent...Los Angeles, Calif.
Q. Spe Fon had a Frazetta checklist in 1969. What has he done since then?
A. Does anyone have a checklist for Frazetta since 1969?
Q. Do you know of a Frank Frazetta Fan Club?
A. I've never heard of any.
Q. Could you give me a list of all paperbacks, fanzines etc that have reprinted Complete E.C. stories?
A. In fanzines I know of FLASHBACK #1 an all Wood issue. I'm sure readers will add to this. In paperbacks there are THE VAULT OF HORROR, TALES FROM THE CRYPT, TALES OF THE INCREDIBLE, TOMORROW MIDNIGHT AND THE AUTUMN PEOPLE. All put out by Ballantine books.
Q. I could use a list of all of Wally Woods sci-fi/fantasy stuff outside of E.C and Tower.?
A. I can not help here and I know of no checklist of Wood art. Anyone know of one?

Paul Jay...Hicksville, N.Y.
Q. I am interested in knowing what the three digit numbers on the early Donald Duck Comic books stand for. In Rob Overstreet's Guide it is mentioned that 318 is #1 and 328 is #2, followed by 339, 348 etc. After #422 the next edition published was #26. Please explain?

AL WILLIAMSON FANS: INTERESTED IN AN AL WILLIAMSON CHECKLIST? WELL JIM VANEENOOGENBURGE, JR. HAS A BOOK A "PRACTICE CAN CALLED 'AL WILLIAMSON: HIS WORK'. A. Donald Duck Comics was part of Dell's 4-Color series and one shot series, or regular 4-color series. Each issue featured a different character like #10 was FLASH GORDON, #96 DICK TRACY etc. those listed in the Priceguide are Donald's issues. Thave another list of DD Comics which does not list #382 and 384 so if those aren't DD Comics then O.S. 108 thru 422 means 25 issues. O.S. meaning One Shot. Color Comics preceded 4-Color and the F & W where large size comics. There was a series of NEW as well with different titles and characters. For some of Dell's 4-Color issues, check Four-Color in the Price Guide.
Q. I would also like to know the titles and numbers of other comics in which the SILVER SURFER appeared other than his own 18 issues.
A. Fantastic Four Annual #5, Fantastic Four #48-50, 55,57,62,72,74-77 and Tales to Astonish 93.

Scott Campbell...Orlando, Fla.
Q. Did John Giunta (who illustrated pulps from the 50's and drew Nelman for Tower) over drew Captain Marvel Jr.? In "Poisoned Press", in C.M.Jr #44, some of the art looks amazingly like his.
A. Not that I know of. Of course Guinta was around as early as 1943 doing such heroes as Skywolf in Air Fighters during 1943-45.
Q. The Comic Book Price Guide commends, for CLIFF COMICS #4, that the Marvel Family is in "some issues". What does this mean? Did different copies of #4 have different contents?
A. I thought they were in all #4's. Can anyone clear this up?
Q. Were there ever any 8"x 10-7/9 of FAMOUS MONSTERS OF FILMLAND? As far as I can tell, they went up to #69 and then skipped to #80.
A. After they got to #69 they added the 10 issues of MONSTER WORLD to make it up to 79. Then continued with #80.

Stuart Hager...Bronx, N.Y.
Q. How many issues did MAGNUS, ROBOT FIGHTER, SPACE FAMILY ROBINSON and DR. SOLAR run?
A. MAGNUS ran 28 issues from 1963 thru 1969. SPACE FAMILY ROBINSON ran 34 issues from 1963 thru 1968 and DR. SOLAR ran 20 issues from 1962 thru 1967.
Q. Were the artists on those issues?
A. Russ Manning did MAGNUS 1-22. Frank Bolle did the early DR. SOLAR. The rest I can not answer. Can anyone?
Q. Did any fanzine ever have an issue devoted to the Gold Key bunch or one zine exactly for them?
A. None that I know of.
Q. How can I get Dells Collector's Guide and How much is it?
A. Write to Jerry Bails 497 Lakewood Blvd. Detroit, Mich. 48215. Ask for details.

CORRECTION: From Don Rosa. The answer to August W. Peters' question on BLUE BEETLE in issue 84 should have listed Blue Beetle as being in Charlton's BLUE BEETLE #18-21 (Feb. '55- Aug. '55) and Space Adventures 13-14 Oct-Nov '54 - Jan.'55).
From Don Rosa for Bob Rosa: Ares, you published 8 issues of WEIRD TALES OF THE FUTURE, (March 1952-July 1953. Also MISTER MYSTERY #1 Sept.1951 - #19 Oct. 1954.
This also from Don Rosa directly from Denny O'neill (thru Ray Fouchee) to clear up the question as to where the first 3 issues of DC'S 100 Page Superspectacular's are. The Post Office Authorities require certain steps are taken in the securing of special rights and copyrights pertaining to magazines of particular sizes. One requirement is that the rights to a title are not recognized until the 4th issue of certain magazines. However nobody ever said starting a magazine with the fourth issue. Therefore to gain instant rights and postal priveleges etc. to their 100 page comics D.C. began the series with #4. There never was a 1-3. I don't think O'Neill knew about the first 11 or 12 issues of D.C. Super Giant, but it's probably the same deal.
And again from the Don Rosa IMPO CENTER (watch it Don) for Martin Bartolomeo: The 80

PAGE GIANTS series is now on #90 of course, they are not called 80-PAGE GIANTS anymore not being hat 64 pages thick. But the numbering system has been carried through. And last...for Neil Glossop: I can't say anything about FOCO magazines you didn't list, but I can straighten out your list somewhat. FOCO ran 1-16. What Neil lists as FOCO PARADE #1 and FOCO ANNUAL #1 I believe are one and the same. What you list as ANNUAL 1OF was actually ALBERT & FOCO 4-Color #105. AMI Yes! There is one item you didn't list Neil: ALBERT & FOCO 4-Color #148.

From Fred Mommson for William Morphis (#84). Captain Marvel GOES TO THE WORLD'S FAIR was in WHIZ #146, titled CAPTAIN MARVEL IN TERROR STALKS THE WORLD'S FAIR. The fair was held on a planet of the star Orolla and was plagued by #Orth" men, human looking creatures from a planet with a mass similar to ours.

Now here is part of a letter from our reader up north; BOB GILES.

Gary Davis on page five of your column in # 74. The issue of Wings he is describing is # 6 (Feb.'41).

Also in # 75,Jim Gayton asked a question on page 8 about Galaxy Novels. First, Wally Wood did do other covers besides the one mentioned by Gayton,Twice in Time! He did at least three others...Address Centauri,Mission of Gravity,and The Forever Machine.

Since it was copyright 1940 by Better Publications,it could only be reprinted from Startling Stories or Thrilling Wonder Stories as those were the only two science fiction mags printed by Better at that time.

Some of the Galaxy Novels were reprinted from the pulps while others were reprinted from digest magazines and some were expanded into novels while others were novels to begin with!

I'm not sure of the exact number of Galaxy novels published but it was well into the thirties. I only have two of the Wood covered books myself;Mission of Gravity and Juice in Time, and they are # 29 and 34 respectively. The Galaxy Novels were originally the same size as Galaxy magazine itself,but,around # 30 or so;I'm not sure of the exact number,they switched to ordinary paperback size and I think that all the Wood covers were small size!

The Galaxy series continued along with something called Beacon books but I've never seen any of those.

In # 80 Dave Puckett on page 7 of your column asked about Russ Mannings earliest work. I don't know what his very first work would be but he asked about anything before the Ben Hur Movie Classic # 1052 (Nov.'59). Manning drew Dell's Sea Hunt comic around the same time as Ben Hur and he also drew Dell's Wyatt Earp comic around '57 or '58,at least. The Sea Hunt comic would be '59 or '60,I think.

I have a copy of Dell's Tarzan # 20 (Mar.-Apr.'51) and it doesn't have Brothers of the Spear. The first issue I have that does is # 26 (Nov.'51) and it and #'s 27, 30,36,and 39 all appear to be the work of Jesse Marsh. My next copy of Tarzan is # 45 (June '53) and although the art isn't signed,it's plain to see that it's Russ Manning's work! One of my great dreams is to someday be the proud possesser of a complete Brothers of the Spear collection!

I don't know if you subscribe to ERB-dom or not,Ray,but,# 47 is an all Russ Manning issue and reprints much of his work including a previously unpublished John Carter of Mars strip Manning did as a sample for Dell. Before he could submit it his National Guard unit was called to Korea and by the time he came back Jesse Marsh was already doing John Carter!

There is a partial checklist which states that Manning's first Brothers of the Spear was in Tarzan # 39 (Dec.'52) and that his first signed strip was # 116 (Jan.-Feb.'60). He also drew Walt Disney's Bob Roy,Rex Allen,77 Sunset Strip,Ricky Nelson and Drag Cartoons.

Incidentally,the checklist mentions that the work in Tarzan # 39 was Manning's first professional work!

The article also mentions that Manning and Bill Stout are working on a new series of adventures for a Brothers of the Spear comic book for Gold Key!

Jerry Ashavich...University City, Mo.

Q. Can anyone identify these two coverless Marvel's for me? 1. THE UNBELIEVABLE MENACE OF MOOMBO by Kirby and Ayers is the lead story. 2. I CREATED MECHANO by Kirby and Ayers..first story.

A. Can anyone help Dave?

Roy Ide...Cleveland, Ohio

Q. Can you tell me what books the Legion of Superheroes have appeared in and which are reprints?

A. I can only answer this in part. They were introduced in SUPERBOY in ADVENTURE 247 and may also in 267,282,290 at least. Then in their own story starting with #300. I have no idea how long they lasted or what they were in after #308. Additional info from Dave Hartman: ADVENTURE #403 was the first comic I knew that had any LEGION reprints. This was a 25¢ issue. # 409 reprints from ADVENTURE 343 and 410 from 326. So according to DAVE'S information we know they were in ADVENTURE thru #326 at least.

Q. What is a copy of ADVENTURES 247 worth?

A. About $2 mint.

David Fryzell...Sioux Falls, S.Dak.

Q. Who did those fabulous Capt. Marvel Jr. covers on MASTER COMICS 38,40 and CM JR. 2,5,10.

A. One of the best...Mac Raboy. He also did Jr.'s stories in MASTER from 23 to around #37 (my last with him). He didn't do him in #41. What about your #38?

Q. Why was SAVAGE TALES so poorly distributed? Is it true that Lieberson called up major area distributers, warning them that SAVAGE TALES would corrupt the youth of America?

A. Don't know why it had poor distribution. That last part of your question is a new one on me. I'd say that there is no truth in it. What was in #1 that would corrupt youths?

Q. Can you give me a brief description of the other features in the SPIRIT Sunday supplements besides the SPIRIT?

A. LADY LUCK , costume heroine dressed in green, appeared in the supplement from the very first, June 2,1940 and was in all thru March 3, 1946. Klaus Nordling did all from March 4,1942-March 3,1946. Before that a number of artists worked on the strip. LADY LUCK returned on May 5,1946 and continued thru Nov.2, 1946 with a different artist. MR. MYSTIC, one of the best of the magician strips was created, written and drawn by BOB POWELL from June 2, 1940 thru Oct 2, 1943. Fred Guardineer did the strip from Oct 10,1943 thru the end on May 14,1944. Other fillers after that were comic like INTELLIGENTIA AMOS and last FLATFOOT BURNS.

Q. What Underground Comix, if any, would you recommend?

A. Nomm, from the ones I've seen.

From both William Harrison and Hector Huzzle comes the answer the Dave Puckett's question in #84. In regaard to the question on the Mexican Comic you asked about, the comic is called SANTO, EL MASCARADO de la PLATA (THE SILVER MASKERADOR) SANTO literally meaning the "Sacred One". Jose G. Cruz is the publisher and cover artist. SANTO is a real life Mexican wrestler who doubles as a comic hero. The publisher also has other titles like EL VALIENTE, LA TIGERSA and el PIERNIO. Much more can be found in ALTER EGO #9 in an article called "SUPERMAN SOUTH.

Willard Harrison...Montevallo, Ala.

Q. Starting with Jan. 1960, what issues of ADVENTURE COMICS featured Aquaman, Green Arrow, and Congorilla?

A. Aquaman was in ADVENTURE thru #280.(Aqualad was introduced in #269). Congorilla was in 270-283 and 285. Green Arrow was last in #269 Feb. 1960.

Q. Where else did Green Arrow appear from Feb 1960 - Dec 1962? (I have JLA, World's Finest after 126 and Adventure 269-269 plus Secret Origins.)

A. To my knowledge that is it.

Q. What issues of DC's TALES OF THE UNEXPECTED featured Automan. Who was the artist and what was the character like?

A. Can anyone answer that?

Q. Who paints GOLD KEY'S covers?

A. Again can anyone answer that?

Ray Majors... Mt. Vernon, Iowa

Q. Could you give me Mark Hazzerfeld's address?

A. I could if I was sure it was the same as it was 3 years ago.

Q. What issues of House of Mystery did Robby Reed appear in?

A. I can't answer this.

Q. What was Kirby's JIM/THION issues?

A. I don't have all,but 85 and 97 are his. Don Heck did 98-100. 102-179 are Kirby.

Q. Does Kirby's partner, from the days of BOY COMMANDOS etc., still work on comics at some company?

A. Joe Simon is editor of SICK MAGAZINE.

David Wilt...La Plata, Md.

Q. What comics did Col. TIM McCOY appear in? Bela Lugosi (movie adaptation, etc)?

A. I've nothing on Bela but TIM McCoy was in TIM McCOY 16-21 (1949)

Q. What issues of the following comics did HOPALONG CASSIDY appear in? MASTER, WESTERN KING HERO, XMAS and GUN HEROES?

A. Can anyone help on this? HOPPY was in MASTER 55-49 and WESTERN HERO 71 thru 88 91 last. Rest I can't answer except to say he was not in any DELL comics. He went to DC after Fawcett. As MILL BOYD he appeared in WESTERN HEROES and SIX GUN HEROES but I can't say what issues. There were 23 issues of MILL BOYD WESTERN.

During the past year I've discovered that more and more COMIC BOOK COLLECTORS are also Movie Fans and especially fans of the old Hollywood Serial and B- Western. Many goods books have been published on both and I've also discovered a whole fandom of Western lovers complete with their own fanzines. The center seeming to be in Texas. So I asked Gordon what he thought about me doing some articles on famous Hollywood Western Stars and he not only liked the idea but said that he was a fan himself and that JOHNNY MACK BROWN was his favorite, so I'm starting the series with Johnny and am dedicating the first feature to GORDON B. LOVE.

I hope this isn't the last such article I do on B-Western Stars and a lot will depend on readers response, so if you like thisidmp me a line and let me know if you would like more of the same.

WESTERN HEROES

ARTICLE BY RAYMOND E.
MILLER

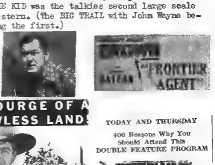
During the late twenties and on into the early fifties, one of the most popular forms of the Hollywood movie was the B- Western, or series western. One of the all time great B-Western stars was JOHNNY MACK BROWN, who made a name for himself in movies from 1927 thru 1950 and was one of the Top Ten Western Stars for 11 years. (1940-1951)

Johnny first saw the light of day in Dothen, Alabama on Sept. 1, 1904, where he would, many years later, excel in football. Johnny got his education at the University of Alabama. While attending the University of Alabama, Johnny not only became one of their top football players, but was also one of the greatest players ever developed in the south.

When Alabama journeyed to Pasadena to play the University of Washington in the Rose Bowl Game on Jan. 1, 1926, it was Johnny who snagged a 53-yard pass to score the winning touchdown to beat Washington 20 to 19. Johnny was All-American that year.

After graduation from Alabama, Johnny married Cornelia Foster and accepted an assistant coaching job at his Alma Magnolia, a position which brought him back to the Rose Bowl in 1927 when Alabama lost Stanford 7-7. This time he stayed in California. A casting director asked him to take a screen test which he did and won a long term contract are MGM. His first film was THE BUGLE CALL in 1927 followed by THE FAIR CO-ED and 1928's OUR DANCING DAUGHTERS. The latter two with Joan Crawford.

Within a short period Johnny had zoomed to first rank leading roles opposite such greats as Norma Shearer, Mary Pickford and Greta Garbo. But playing leads opposite leading ladies wasn't to be his destiny...the hero of countless westerns was and for his first starring western he was cast as Billy the Kid in MGM's 1930 movie of the same name. The film also had Wallace Beery as Pat Garrett and was directed by King Vidor. BILLY THE KID was the talkies second large scale western. (the BIG TRAIL with John Wayne being the first.)



BILLY THE KID was followed by MONTANA MOON and THE GREAT MEADOW for MGM and a major production LASCA OF THE RIO GRANDE for Universal with Leo Carillo in 1931. LASCA OF THE RIO GRANDE led the way for Johnny's first serial which was Mascot's 12 chapter FIGHTING WITH KIT CARSON.

Then Johnny was to star in a series of 8 Supreme Westerns during 1935-36 which were BEYOND MEN, COURAGEOUS AVENGER, BRANDED A COWARD, CROOKED TRAIL, DESERT PHANTOM, STEVENSON'S LAW, ROGUE OF THE RANGERS, and VALLEY OF THE LAWLESS. He also did another serial - Universal's 12 chapter RUSTLER'S OF RED DOG in 1936.

1936-1937 saw Johnny at Republic for those 8 westerns.. LAWLESS LANDS, UNDERCOVER MAN, A LAWMAN IS BORN, RAN Z RAIDERS, FOOTHILL BRIGADE, THE GAMBLING TERROR, GUNS IN THE DARK, and TRAIL OF VENGEANCE and another serial for Universal - WILD WEST DAYS (13 chapter) in 1937.

During this time Johnny was still doing other roles for other studios like 1937's VANISHING FRONTIER for Paramount with Raymond Hatton, Dwight Frayo and Za-Su Pitts. Johnny played Kirby Cornell, Spanish rebel guerrilla leader in this one and after viewing it on TV I'd say Johnny sounded and and acted more like Bela Lugosi then he did Johnny Mack Brown.

Then came 1939 and a Universal contract. From that period on Johnny would star in nothing but westerns. Bob Baker had just finished a starring series for Universal and in Johnny's first movie for the studio they teamed Baker and Johnny, along with Fuzzy Knight in 6 top-notch westerns - 1939's DESPERATE TRAILS, OKLAHOMA FRONTIER, CHIP OF THE FLYING U and 1940's WEST OF CARSON CITY, SON OF ROARING DAN, and BAD MEN FROM RED BUTTE. After BAD MEN FROM RED BUTTE Baker dropped out and Johnny continued with 1940's LAW AND ORDER, PONY POST, RAGTIME COWBOY JOE, BLAZES OF PASCO BASIN, 1941's LAW OF THE RANGE, THE MASKED RIDER, LAW FROM MONTANA, BANDITS RANGERS, BOSS OF BULLION CITY, RUNT ME NOT ON THE LONE PRAIRIE, ARIZONA CYCLONE, 1942's STAGECOACH BUCKAROO, FIGHTING BILL FARGO, THE SILVER BULLET, and BOSS OF HANGTOWN MESA. Many of those films featured side kick Fuzzy Knight and leading lady Nell O'Day.

Johnny was now ready to co-star again. Tex Ritter had just finished a series at Columbia with Wild Bill Elliott and was now ready to join Johnny at Universal for 7 films which included - JEEP IN THE KNAPP OF TEXAS, LT-U-D JOE, THE WRANGLER in 1942 and in 1943 CHEYENNE ROUNDUP, LONE STAR TRAIL, THE OLD CHISHOLM TRAIL, RAIDERS OF SAN JOAQUIN, AND TENTING TONIGHT ON THE OLD CAMP GROUND.

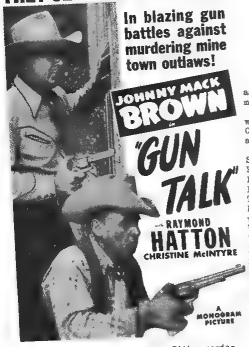
It's perfectly all right for Johnny Mack Brown to have his arm around the lovely bobby-sox's daughter, Jane Morrow, with dad and brother.

THEY SET THE WEST AFIRE!



With the conclusion of the Ritter series Johnny left Universal for Monogram where he would make one of the longest series of western movies in Hollywood history. He would now make westerns for Monogram into 1952.

Monogram's popular ROUGH RIDER series had just come to an abrupt end with the untimely death of Buck Jones so Johnny was called on to fill the gap. Johnny not only inherited one of the stars of the ROUGH RIDER series in Raymond Hatton, but also many unused scripts and director Scott R. Dunlap from that series as well. Johnny and pal Raymond Hatton would make close to 50 westerns together.

But first Johnny would make his last serial which were 1938's FLAMING FRONTIERS and THE OREGON TRAIL in 1939. Both were 15 chapters and made for Universal.

Johnny's first Monogram film was 1945's SIX GUN GOSPEL followed by THE STRANGER FROM PECOS, THE TEXAS KID, THE GHOST RIDER, GUN - LAWS OF STAMPEDE PASS, and RAIDERS OF THE ROPE. 1946 saw Johnny and Ray in PARTNERS OF THE TRAIL, LAW MEN, RANGE LAW, WEST OF THE RIO GRANDE AND LAW OF THE OUTLAWS. 1947 it was NAVAJO TRAIL, GUN SMOKE, PLAZE OF THE WEST, STRANGER FROM SANTA FE, AND THE LOST TRAIL. 1946 saw the out put upped to 9 films per year. The 1946 films were FRONTIER FEUD, BORDER BANDITS, DRIFTING ALONG, THE HAUNTED MINE, UNDER ARIZONA SKIES, THE GENTLEMEN FROM TEXAS (Which was one of Johnny's best for Monogram), SHADOWS ON THE RANGE, TRIGGER FINGERS, AND THE SILVER RANGE.

Johnny again co-starred with Rod Cameron in Allied Artists SHORT GRASS in 1950.

After 4 films in 1951 Johnny would be joined by Jimmy Ellison for 7 films which would wind up Johnny's starring career. These films were 1951's OKLAHOMA JUSTICE, WHISTLING HILLS, TEXAS LAWMEN, 1952's TEXAS CITY, MAN FROM BLACK HILLS, DEAD MAN'S TRAIL, and CANYON AMBUSH.

Two additional films were 1944's LAW OF THE VALLEY and GHOST GUNS with Raymond Hatton.

During the later 50's and early 60's Johnny would guest star on a number of TV Shows like Perry Mason ect. Johnny would make his last two films in 1965...the BOUNTY KILLER with Rod Cameron, Buster Crabbe and Bob Steele and REQUIEM FOR A GUNFIGHTER again with Cameron and Steele along with Tim McCoy. Both were independent productions from producer Alex Gordon.

Over the years Johnny and his wife reared four children, Harriet, Lachlan, Cynthia, and Sally. Johnny and Cornelia have 5 grandchildren and he is still an ardent football fan. The Browns still live in Hollywood and Johnny still hunts, golfs and rides...mostly with long time pal and former Western Star Charles Starrett.

Johnny is also a charter member of Alabama's HALL OF FAME.

During 1947 Johnny and Ray starred in RAIDERS OF THE SOUTH, VALLEY OF FEAR, TRAILING DANGER, LAND OF THE LAWLESS, THE LAW COMES TO GUNSIGHT, CODE OF THE SADDLE, FLASHING GUNS, PRAIRIE EXPRESS and GUN TALK. The films of 1948 were OVERLAND TRAIL, CROOKED TRAILS, FRONTIER AGENT, TRIGGERMAN, BACK TRAIL, THE FIGHTING RANGER and SHERIFF OF MEDICINE BOW. With GUILTY FOR JUSTICE, Max Terhune joined Johnny and Ray. Max would appear in 8 films but after the first two or three Raymond Hatton would drop out. The remaining 7 films were GUNNING FOR JUSTICE, HIDDEN JUSTICE, 1949's LAW OF THE WEST, TRAILS END, WEST OF ELDORADO, RANGE JUSTICE, DESPERADO OUTLAWS and 1950's WEST OF WYOMING. In 1949 Johnny also co-starred with Rod Cameron and Gail Storm in Allied Artists STAMPEDE.

During the rest of 1950 Johnny would have no regular co-star in OVER THE BORDER with Myron Healey, SIX GUN MESA with Gail Davis and Dennis Moore, MASSACRE VALLEY, LAW OF THE PANHANDLE, OUTLAW GOLD, and 1951's COLORADO AMBUSH with Lois Hall, MAN FROM SONORA, BLAZING BULLETS, AND MONTANA DESPERADO.

SCOTT HARRIS...BALDWIN HARBOR, N.Y.

Q. Were there two series of SUPER-MYSTERY COMICS published in the Golden Age?

A. No.It might seem that way since there were only three 1942 issues.

Q. In todays ARCHIE Title "ESP" a combination or of any relation to the comic of the same name published by MLJ in the Golden Age?

A. It is the same. ARCHIE started in #29 Dec. 1941 and was part of THE SHIELD, HANGMAN, CAPTAIN COMMANDO line up. ARCHIE'S first cover was #36 with SHIELD and HANGMAN. Next cover was #41 and he has been on the cover ever since. SHIELD'S last cover was #49. ARCHIE and the comedy strip stared to take over with #40. SHIELD was last in #69.

Q. I know that MODE FUN #106 contained a format change in contents. Was it to funny animals?

A. No, just to humor strips like Dover & Clover and Genis Jones etc.

Q. Does DC have the rights to any other Quality characters besides PLASTC MAN?

A. Outside of BLACKHAWK and KID ETERNITY I do not know.

Here is one I may not be able to find the answer to. Who was the artist on LITTLE LULU and what is the connection between BARKS and John Stanley?

And last but not least..PLEASE overlook my spelling as I'm rushed of late. No excuse for spelling Siegel wrong...Sorry about that Howard.

PREMIUM CLASSICS

By Rex Miller

I think you'll like my new RADIO PREMIUMS ILLUSTRATED! See our ad copy elsewhere in the pages of this RB-CC

Trivia, Minutiae, and Super-Trivia Department:
Didja' know TOM MIX offered more arrowhead premium devices than STRAIGHT ARROW? (Between 1946 and 1949 alone, Ralston's Straight-Shootin' hero offered three different signalling devices in the shape of arrowheads.)

What was the premium issued and reissued most often under different names? The whistling ring from the Robbins Company molds was reissued with a variety of markings for TOM MIX, DON WINSLOW, DANEY ADAMS (SON OF THE SEA), JACK ARMSTRONG (as the JACK ARMSTRONG SECRET WHISTLE CODE RING), JIMMIE ALLEN, and by some character named CAPTAIN HADACOL ! This was a Marvel-Midnight semi-swipe from the late 1940's, whose reissued premium goodies included the SKY KING MAGNI-GLO RING, the FRANK BUCK EXPLORER'S SUN WATCH, and THE TOM MIX GLOW-IN-THE-DARK SPURS- among others.

What premium opened the doors for CHALLENGE OF THE YUKON? The little-known package giveaway series QUAKER MODEL FARMS, complete with working windmills and pop-up animal figures. What relation this had to the SGT. PRESTON character seems obscure now.

Why are THE SHADOW radio premiums so rare, since he was such a popular radio figure? Poor merchandising and promotion. His primary radio sponsors (coal company, tire company, etc.) were not juvenile-oriented, as the great food product companies were. Hence- the scarcity of such premiums as the Blue Coal glowing figural ring, the so-called "electric eye" ring, the tigers' eye, the Hypno-Coin, the post cards, the photographs, the Shadow Club medal and seal, etc.

What premium exists with the greatest number of variations as issued by the same adventure hero? Probably the LONE RANGER's six-pointed star-shaped badge, dozens of which were issued by participating sponsor/tie-ups running the gamut from Merita to the Republic Pictures serial.

Tarzan

BRUCE HAMILTON - Box 998 - Scottsdale, Arizona 85252

Below is listed one of the finest collections of authentic Edgar Rice Burroughs FIRST EDITIONS ever offered in this country for sale. These are all GUARANTEED "firsts," with the two exceptions of the 1963 Tarzan Twins, and the dust jacket to The Oakdale Affair. All are in very good to very fine condition unless otherwise indicated. Those with dust jackets have a "dj" after the title, and the price quoted is for both the book and the jacket. I am not personally a book collector or dealer. Therefore, if you see a first edition you'd like to trade comic material for, I'll listen to any serious offer. I don't care, though, if I sell OR trade Tarzan of the Apes, so any offers for it will have to be significant.

The following two collections are both complete, to the best of my knowledge. They used to belong to a dealer who also was a collector and he spent 10 years up-grading the quality of the two sets. You'll have to call if you want to arrange this, because in a few days I'll break the sets to fill orders. (602) 949-1966.

Well friends, having again decided to enter this wild world of comic collecting, I just want to say that it's good to be back. This"lovable" old Irish cop has tried to list a variety of comics for your browsing and hopefully buying pleasure. If you want something not listed, just ask, I might have it. AM ALWAYS interested in buying comics, so list what you have with prices wanted (please be sensible).

Dear Sirs,

I'd like to give you my highest praise for the ART FOLIO which I received today. It is the best reprint zine of it's kind and well worth the $2 considering the great reproduction and contents. I'm usually disappointed with most fanzines because they are over priced, cheaply put together, advertised to sound a lot better than they really are and are rather amateurish in design. But your ART FOLIO was something I've been waiting for, for a long time. You have my support for any further projects (provided you can maintain this level of quality material and good printing). May I suggest that you reprint everything by Frazetta Wood, etc. that you possibly can.

Best wishes,
John Kent
